CHILDREN'S DAY AT THE CHURCHES.

BLABORATE FLORAL DECORATIONS - SPECIAL SERVICES AND SERMONS.

Yesterday was "Children's Day" in many of the churches, and special services were held at the Cornell Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Seventy-sixthett. near Second-ave. A sermon was preached by the Rev. Horsee W. Byrne, illustrated by drawings on a blackboard. In the afternoon 1,300 children took part in the exercises, giving some excellent music. church was filled with flowers and plants, and the plants, in pots, were distributed to the children after

At the Church of the Divine Paternity, at Fifth-ave hie service. and Forty-fifth-st., the Rev. Dr. Charles W. Eaton sermon to children, entitled, " Lessons from the Flood." The floral decorations were handsome and extensive. The services closed with the alministration of the rite of baptism to a number of persons.

At the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Madison-ave. and One-hundred-and-thirteenth-st., the Rev. James Chambers preached a sermon to the children which was illustrated on the blackboard. There was a peautiful display of flowers and about 350 children ed in white were present. A good sum was collected for the Johnstown sufferers.

A Children's Day service was held at the Fifth Avenue House of Industry yesterday afternoon. The series were led by William F. Barnard. An enorms preamed of flowers was placed in the centre of platform, and the 250 boys and girls, each wear a bouquet of daisles, were ranged in seats on er side. Many friends of the institution were suit.

Children's Day was observed at the Church of the Church of the See and Land yesterday afternoon. The exercises were conducted by F. Bruckbauer, and an address was delivered by the Rev. T. Atkinson. At the close of the exercises 300 bouquets were distributed among the children.

The observance of Children's Day was general among the Brooklyn churches. At several there were exercises in which the children took part and in others there were special addresses for the little ones.

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

The Lyceum Theatre company started yesterday in special car for San Francisco, by the Eric Railroad. The opening performance there will be on next Menday and the tour will last twenty weeks. Manager Frohman remains here. The company will not be seen at the Lyceum till November.

W. H. Crane's company for next season includes Georgie Drew Barrymore, Augusta Foster, Lizzie Hud-Collier, Nina Bouckault, Carrie Jackson, James Neil, T. H. Tyler, Henry Bergman, William Herbert Harry Braham and George F. Devere.

M. B. Leavitt has secured the lease of the new Windor Theatre, in the North Side of Chicago, and will open it with the American Opera Company, on September 9.

Pine Meadows," a domestic comedy-drama, by Sedley Brown, will have a trial performance at an Authors' Matinee " next Friday afternoon, at the Madison Square Theatre. The cast, which is composed entiredly of volunteers, includes Miss Selina Fetter, Miss Henricta Crosman, Mrs. "Sol" Smith, Miss Bar-rington, David M. Murray, Harry Courtaine, Charles North, Sherkian Tupper and Frederick Percy Marsh, stage markets.

Norris, Sherrian Tupper and Frederick Percy Marsh, stage marager.

Miss Lena Merville will to-night replace Miss Elma Delare in the role of Banysoola, in the "Oolah." As was printed on Sunday, the part has been changed to that of a young woman, and it is not strange that Mr. Wilson, in his many changes, should make this alteration. He says that Miss Dolaro will remain under salary. Naturally discussed to be been sale in the being the shifty of actors, have often to be made in the interest of managers.

Ernest Bohm.
Sir: Your letter of the 3d of this month, in which suggest that this Government take steps to be repre-ted in the conference in Switzerland, has been received by me. In answer to this I inclose a copy of a dispatch from our Minister in Berne, from which you will see that only European manufacturing States have been invited to this conference. This Government has received to such invitation. A later dispatch from Berne says that Austria and Franco have signified their intention to take part in this conference.

The dispatch spoken of sets forth the purposes of the conserence. Secretary Bohm was then instructed to write to the United States Minister at Berne and Mikhim to request the Swiss Government to laytic the United States to send a representative to the conference.

THE RELIEF FUND GROWS. COLLECTIONS IN MANY CHURCHES

WHAT THE THEATRES WILL DO THIS WEEK CONTRIBUTIONS FROM MANY SOURCES.

Special collections for the Johnstown sufferers were aken up at nearly all of the Protestant Episcopal churches in this diocese vesterday, in accordance with a request from Bishop Potter. Almost the only excepwere those churches, such as Grace Church which had taken up a collection for the purpose a week ago. Many of the most prominent members of the largest and wealthiest congregations have already left town for the summer, and no phenomenal collections were expected. In the various churches of Trinity Parish, and also in some other leading churches in the denomination, the Sunday offerings are not counted until Monday, and consequently it was impossible to say yesterday just how much was given. Several church officers said, however, that not less than $15,000 would be given throughout the city, and perhaps a great deal more. It will all be expended under the direction of church officers for the relief of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Johnstown.

A collection of $463 was taken up yesterday morning at the Calvary Baptist Church for the relief of the Johnstoon sufferers, and additional contributions during the day brought up the amount to over $300. The money will be sent directly to the Baptist minister at Johnstown, to be distributed among the Baptists who are in need. During the week the Young People's Society sent $100 for the relief of the sufferers. church will be open daily from 12 to 1 o'clock to receive contributions of clothing.

This afternoon at Palmer's there will be a remark ably attractive performance for the benefit of the flood sufferers. The programme is: Miss Rosina Vokes's Company in "A Game of Cards"; recitation Mr. Wilton Lackaye; cong, " His 'Art was True to Poll," Rosina Vokes; Forum Scene from "Julius Caesar," Marc Antony, Thomas W. Keene; The Mob. by promipent members of the five A's; "Comes a Birdle Aflying." Mathilde Cottrelly; six comedians in a novel entertainment, Frank Daniels, James T. Powers, Charles Evans, William Hoey, R. A. Roberts, Jeff de Angelis; " A Modern Antony," Burr Mackintosh; second act of Von Suppe's opera, "Clover," by the McCaull Opera Company, Adolph Nowak, musical director; H. A. Cripps, stage manager.

The boxes for the entertainment at the Metropolitan Opera House, on Thursday afternoon, will be sold at auction at the Madison Square Theatre at 4 p. m. to-morrow instead of in Wall-at. to-day, as at first announced. J. H. Draper will be the auctioneer, announced. J. H. Draper will be the auctioneer, assisted by Francis Wilson and De Wolf Hopper. The programme includes: "Arkwright's Wife? with Miss Heien Barry and company; recitation, "In Bohemia," Eben Plympton; comic act by Louis Harrison; recitation by Harry Ewards; Edwin Hooth, Lawrence Barrett and their company in the third act of "Othello"; Herrmann, the prestidigitateur, and his company; J. W. Morrissey's Opera Company in the third act of "Martha"; an ornheaving of 500 musicians, surnished by the Aschenbrodel Verein, under the direction of Anton Seidi, Theodore Thomas and Waiter Damrosch, including the full 7th Regiment Band of 100 pieces, under the leadership of Signor Cappa; Joseffy, the eminent planist.

Amphion Academy, in Bedford-ave, Brooklyn, for the purpose of raising funds to ald the Johnstown flood sufferors. An entertainment, consisting of instrumental and vocal music, preceded addresses made by the Rev. Dr. Darlington, of Christ Episcopal Church, and Mr. Bernard Peters, of "The Brooklyn Times," Amounts ranging from $1 up were received, with the result that $141 was handed in.

The total collections for the Johnstown sufferers received by Treasurer W. B. Hincks, of the City Savings Bank, at Bridgeport, Conn., up to Saturday evening, foot up $6,678 61.

The Rev. William Lloyd preached a sermon vesterday morning at the Central Congregational Church, entitled "Some Thoughts on the Johnstown Disaster," taking as his text: "God is our refuse, a very present help in time of trouble." The church was crowded with an appreciative congregation, and a collection was taken up in aid of the relief fund. The sum of $360 was realized, which will be forwarded to-day. The Amalgamateed Association of Iron and Steel Workers of the United States has voted $2,000 to be at once sont to Johnstown, and has ordered the various unions of the association to assess each member one day's pay for the same purpose. There are over 75,000 members in the association.

The Jersey City and Loweli teams played a game of baseball at Jersey City yesterday and gave the gate weeklets $853 to the Johnstown sufferers. About 75.000 members in the association.

The Jersey City and Lowell teams played a game of basebail at Jersey City yesterday and gave the gate receipts, 8635, to the Johnstown sufferers. About 82,000 was raised at Newark by a game between the Newark and Worcester nines for the same purpose. Collections were taken in nearly all the churches of Jersey City yesterday for the Johnstown relief fund and it is estimated that they amounted to about $1,500.

FUNDS FROM WASHINGTON AND BALTIMORE. Washington, June 9.-The Citizens' Relief Committee has received money contributions aggregating $31,272 for the Johnstown sufferers. The money

col. 272 for the Johnstown consists of the contribution of Washington up to 3.6,356.

Bailmore, June 9.—The benefit at Harris's Academy of Music by the Thompson Opera Company in aid of the Johnstown sufferers netted over $1,500 dollars. Every cent taken was given to the fund.

ST. LOUIS WANTS TO TAKE TWENTY BABIES. St. Louis, June 9.-Roger Hayne, manager of the Christian Home of this city, has telegraphed to Mrs. Hinckley, in charge of the Waifs' Mission, at Johnstown, asking for twenty babies and promising that good care will be taken of them if they are sent here.

Chicago, June 9 (Special).—Nothing was heard yes-terday but "wet harvest." The cry got the price up 1-2 cent and made it look for an hour as if a bull market had started. It did not last. There were too much realizing and too much short selling. At the close all the day's advance was gone, and a little even of that gained on Friday. July wheat stopped at 76 3-4 cents, having opened at 77 1-4 and having sold as high as 77 3-4. Monday's market is likely to be a more eventful one. It was one of the bull predictions to-day that the visible supply will show a large decrease, possibly 2,000,000 bushels, which is three times as large as the decrease for the corresponding week in 1888. The bulls had all their success before noon. Between that time and the close the bears accomplished a decline of a full cent. close the bears accomplished a decline of a full cent. Corn was helped for awhile by the wet weather and the advance in wheat, but declined when the latter did. July opened at 34 3-8 cents and closed at 34 1-4, and kept all the session within 1-4 cent range. Oats kept within 1-6 cent range. July opened at 22 3-8 cents, closing at 22 3-8 to 22 1-2 cents. Provisions were a little lower because dult. For 2 1-2 cents; lard, 2 1-2 cents; short ribs. 5 cents under Friday. Hogs at the yards were steady, but the estimates for next week are liberal, 115,000 head. On the curb July wheat was steady at 76 3-4 cents.

ENTERING ON HIS NEW PASTORATE. The Rev. Henry B. Hudson, formerly pastor of the Lewis Avenue Congregational Church, of Brooklyn. who was recently called to be pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, entered upon his pastorate yesterday 'If real practical Christian influence is to be exerted on the people," he said, in the course of his sermon, it must be done by direct personal contact with individuals. The day when one man could sway the masses at his will is practically a thing of the past. The mission work which has so long been carried on among the Chinese by this church when first indertaken was frowned on by many. To bring such a mission work to a successful issue in the face of the many difficulties with which ft was beset, showed the many difficulties with which it was beset, showed courage, character and high moral qualities." The Bev. Dr. James B. Simmons, formerly a paster of the church, also spoke. It was a singular but pleasing fact, he said, that one-tenth of the Baptist ministers originally belonged to other denominations, and that both the new paster and his immediate predecessor had at first belonged to other churches. In the evening a special children's service was held.

"I think I dropped a letter into the mail the other day without stamping it," said a man at the post-office as he asked for the chief clerk.

"And you ought to have held it for inquiry?"
"Me have fur rules."
"And they are mighty impudent rules, let me tell you! The Postoffice Department needs overhauling, and I'll help to see it done?"
The next day the man returned, this time with a smile on his face, and said:
"You remember I was speaking about an unstamped letter?"
"Yes."
"Yes."

GLANCES HERE AND THERE.

"I have often admired," said a New-York housewife the other day, "the generosity which prompts Irish people in this city to many forms of self-denial, in order that money may be saved to pay the passage of brothers or sisters left behind to the New World. that they, too, may share its advantages. But it never occurred to me until recently that there is often more self-denial about it than the mere scraping together of the money involves. A smart, good-looking servant girl of mine had been in this country for four years, and in that time had managed to drop her brogue, had acquired considerable taste in dressing berself, and had made a wide acquaintance among American girls of her own class, and was possessed of no little pride, not wholly unjustifiable, either. at her progress and acquirements.' She surprised me one day by telling me she wanted to go down to Castle Garden to meet her younger sister, whose passage she had paid and who had just landed. Later the day she returned, without her sister, but with a look of worry on her generally smiling face that forced me to inquire the cause. I learned that the sister had arrived, but without hat or stockings and In such coarse peasant garb that my stylish girl, whose clothes as she stood in them probably cost $60, was ashamed to bring her into the street. She had come ashamed to bring her into the street. She had come up for some of her own clothes to put on the stranger. And when the new arrival did appear, what a stupid, ugly dolt it was, and what a brogue, and how ignorant! But my Mary would not be ashamed of her, but broofed over her like a hen with one chicken, speur money on her, got her a place as a kitchen help, and though she did not introduce her to her American friends, yet she will do it, no doubt, when she has, as she expresses it, 'licked the colt into shape.'"

One good way for a girl to earn her own pin-money is to raise canaries. Good singers always bring good prices, and even the poor ones are worth something. There is considerable amusement, too, to be derived from the care of birds, by one who is fond of pets, and the cost is next to nothing after the parent birds and a cage are once purchased. The rules for success are simple. A big roomy cage, a wide, shallow nest and cleanliness are requisites. Paper spread on the floor of the cage, sprinkled with sand, is easily removed and renewed. A bird of light color is best nated with one of darker hue, or the offspring will look either washed out or too dingy. If the male canary is a good singer, a cross with a linnet will produce the best results. Lef the birds alone as much as possible. Do not fuss over them. Do not be alarmed if they fight a little at first, they soon settle upon which is to rule the roost. Err rather on the side of too little than too much food. Be careful to side of too little than too much 1992. Be careful to give nothing salty or greasy. One pair of birds will raise several broods in a year. The little ones are perfect frights at first, but grow fast. At four weeks they begin to squeak. Their first efforts are positively painful, but in two weeks notes should be distinctly andible if the bird is to be a singer. The writer had a han bird that died when her brood was a week old, but the widower raised the whole family, and

The surest harbingers of summer and the summertime are here-the flannel shirt, the shirt of fancy stripes, and the russet-colored shoes. Scores of each singly or in combination, can be seen daily in a stroll along Broadway. The American takes naturally to these undress costumes, and the demand, so the furnishers say, is enormous and widespread. One cause of the popularity of this style of dress is to be found in the growing fondness for all sorts of outdoor sports. The fancy of the designers of these shirts and shoes and Solomon in all his glory probably was no rayed in such multicolored and striking color the, average young man of the period when he his "loafing" costume. is allowed to take the wildest and most gorgeous turns, and Solomon in all his glory probably was not ar-

HOSPITAL ACCOMMODATIONS.

A LETTER FROM THE AGENT OF THE SATURDAY AND SUNDAY ASSOCIATION. Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: An article in your issue of the 4th inst., headed "Half-Filled Hospitals," is attracting wide astention; and (no doubt unintentionally so far as Tho Tribune is concerned) is doing the hospitals of this city an injustice as well as a serious injury. Broadly speaking, the charge is that while the sick poor are uffering for lack of hospital treatment, the wards of many institutions in New-York and Brooklyn " are only partly occupied, and there is reluctance on the part of managers to receive patients even when the ull price is offered." You take pains to state that your strictures do not apply to institutions supported as public expense, and only to those with which the names of various religious bodies are associated suggesting the inference that these two kinds include say thirty out of a total of fifty, are neither a public charge (in the sense of deriving support from th municipality) nor under religious domination. strictly religious hospitals there are scarcely above a dozen. Let me enumerate them: Projestant Episcopal-St. Luke's, St. Macy's, House of Rest, Holy Comforter, Trinity; Roman Catholic-St. Vincent's, Francis's, St. Joseph's, St. Elizabeth's; Jewish Mt. Sinal, Monteflore Home; Presbyterian-Presby

Now, if the remarks of the writer have any bearing on New York, they must apply to one or more of the nospitals above enumerated. Therefore, is it not air to ask of which of these can it be said that, after passing from floor to floor and ward to ward, as (the visitor) is surprised to find so small a number of immates housed and cared for in these charitable values.

of inmates housed and cared for in these charitatic pulsaces.

I have no knowledge how matters stand in brocklyn (and if The Tribune had in view one or more institutions in that city, it is very much to be regretted that it did not confine its animalversions to Brocklynt, but so far as New-York is concerned I speak by the card when I affirm that the strictures are in no sense applicable to any one of the institutions above mentioned; while it is the simple truth that one and all are almost daily constrained to turn away patients for lack of room.

MRS. HARRIET HUBBARD AYER'S THANKS.

to the Aditor of The Tribune. Sir: During the past two weeks I have received over 1,200 letters and telegrams of sympathy and congratulation. Many of these communications are from strangers, and a number bear no address. I should like every human creature who has thought kindly of me during these past weeks, and, above all, I should like every mother to know how profoundly grateful I am for every gentle thought or word they have given me. In the darkest hour of my life the quick response to my position as a mother, battling for her children, came to me as a benediction, and will remain with me always.

WHY NOT CLOSE THE SCHOOLS?

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir Is it fair to the New-York City teachers to keep the schools open puring the State Convention of Teachers, which will be held in Brooklyn on July 1, 2 and 3. Under the present plan one fourth the number of teachers in each department may attend, while the other three-fourths must remain in class. Why not follow the example set by Brooklyn, and close the schools on June 28, thus giving all an opportunity of attending the lectures?

LAROUCHERE DOES THE BIG TOFF. From The Edinburgh Scotsman.

From The Edinburgh Scotsman

Talking about boyish escapades, "I have a vivid recollection," bays Mr. Henry Labouchere, "of a day when, happening to have more money than I knew what to do with, I determined to do the big toff.' I sallied forth to the largest hotel in Eton, engaged a pdvate room, and ordered the waiter to bring me a bowl of punch. The discreet functionary stared, but brought it; it was then my turn to stare and wonder what on earth I should do with the huge bowl full of a fluid the very odor of which made me feel faint. At length, my eye resting upon a good old-fashioned cupboard of antique oak, a brilliant idea struck me. I opened the door and poured the whole of the punch into the basement of the cupboard. Then after waiting a few minutes to see whether the obnoxious liquor would make intoads upon the carpet, the pattern of which was that of guiden crowns on a royal-blue ground, I rang the bell again, and, on the waiter appearing, in still more authoritative tones I ordered another bowl. Never shall I forget the expression of horrified amazement which cause over the man's countenance. The second potation went the way of the first-that is to say, into the cupboard; and Alexander the Great, after his victory over Darius, could not have feit prouder than I did when I called for the bill, disbursed half-a-sovereign for the punch, ten shillings more for the private parior, tipped the waiter and swageered into the street, fully persuaded that the eyes of the whole inn were upon me, which, in my exuitant state of mind, were tantamount to those of all Europe. I never went there again.

SUNDAY'S BALL GAMES.

PLAYING FOR JOHNSTOWN SUFFERERS.

BROOKLYN'S HOLLOW VICTORY OVER THE LOUISVILLE NINE-SCORES AND RECORDS.

The Brooklyn and Louisville teams played their second game together at Ridgewood Park, Brooklyn. yesterday. The home nine again won with ridiculous ease. Ramsey pitched with little effect in spite of his excellent support. The spectators numbered 4,636, but were far from being partisan in their feeling toward the home team. Paasch, who umpired in Ferguson's absonce, was continually hissed by the crowd, which seemed to think he was giving the home players more benefits than an impartial umpire should. A shower stopped the game for five minutes in the fifth inning. O'Brien's excellent base-running and Burns's batting were the remarkable features of the contest. The score was as follows:

The Jersey City and Lowell teams played a game of baseball at Oakland Park, Jersey City, yesterday, for the benefit of the Johnstown sufferers. 2,505 spectators were present, and the deserving charity will be enriched by $835. The game was s well-played one, and the final result was uncertain from start to finish. Many of Jersey City's chief officials were present and evinced the liveliest interest in the game. Daley pitched for three innings and was succeeded by Williams. Sullivan pitched for six innings for Lowell, and German pitched the last three. The League race goes merrily on with the Boston team still far in the lead. The Glants and Bostons will come together at St. George, Staten Island to-day. The three games to be played between these two teams this week will be closely watched. The Cleveland team is the decided surprise of the season, the ambitious Westerners having at last fought their way into second piace in the pennant race. hardly hope to remain there for long. The Philadelphia team is third, and the New Yorkers a decided fourth. Chicago occupies the fifth place, in spite of Anson's many boasts. The record to date is subjoined:

to be erected at Madison-ave, and Seventy-third-st. There was a large congregation and the pastor, Dr. J. B. Remensnyder, made some historical statements respecting the church and Lutheranism in this city. The first Lutheran church was built at Broadway and Rector st., opposite Trinity Church, in 1671, The first English Lutheran church was erected in 1801. In 1810 this congregation went over into the Episcopal Church, becoming Zion's Episcopal Church, at Madison-ave, and Thirty-eighth-st.

In 1827 the congregation of St. James's English Lutheran Church was organized. For a short time From The Newman (Ga.) Herald.

A plous old citizen of Carrollion went to the cars the other day to see his daughter off. Securing her a geat he passed out of the car and went around to the car window to say a parring word. While he was passing out, the daughter left the seat to speak to a priend, and at the same time a grim old maid took the seat and moved up to the window. Unaware of the seat and moved up to the window. Unaware of the seat and moved up to the window. Unaware of the seat and moved up to the window. Unaware of the seat and moved up to the window. OBITUARY.

FRANCIS ALEXANDRE.

Francis Alexandre, one of the oldest and best-known merchants in this city, died at his home, No. 10 West Thirty-second-st, on Saturday evening, from lung trouble, after a sickness of three weeks. Although eighty-one years old, Mr. Alexandre had enjoyed excellent health until the recent sickness. He was born on the Isle of Jersey, and though the son of a wealthy family, Mr. Alexandre, filled with a love of the sailor's life, went to sea at the early age of thirteen. He devoted much of his spare time to reading, and attended night-school during the stay of his vessel in the various

At the age of twenty-one he had become so proficient in his chosen profession that he was able to take command of a vessel, which he directed successfully for years, and to renounce in favor of his sisters the estate which he had inherited from his father. When about twenty-eight years old the young captain settled in

He established a commission house in South-st, for which, as he was wont to relate in after years as proof of the advance in New-York prices, he paid but $25 annual rent. He established a line of sailing vessels between New-York and Honduras, starting a line subsequently between this port and Vera Cruz. 1867 he sold the salling vessels, substituting steamers, which ran between New-York, Havana and Mexico, and for seventeen years carried the mails between this country and the neighboring Republic. One year ago, Mr. Alexandre, with whom his sons had been associated in business, retired from active life, having sold his vessels. Since then he has remained at his home in this city.

Mr. Alexandre married when a young man Miss Civiles Cipriant, a French woman, then living in NewYork City. Mrs. Alexandre died a number of years ago. Three sons, John E. J. Joseph, and J. Henry, survive him. The funeral will take place at Calvant and Treasty-first-st. to no room hurch, Fourth-ave. and Twenty-first-st., to-morn morning at 9:30. The burial will be at Greenwood.

SILAS H. WITHERBEE.

Silas H. Witherbee, the senior member of the firm of Witherbee, Sherman & Co., died at his home, No. 228 Madison-ave., on Saturday evening, from pneumonia. Mr. Witherbee was born in Bridport, Vt., in 1815, and was engaged in his youth in mechanical pursuits. In 1842 he married Sophia C. Goff, of Orange County, and went to Port Henry, N. a bookkeeper. Afterward, with his nephew J. G. Witherbee, he engaged in the iron ore and transportation business at Port Henry, under the firm name of S. H. & J. G. Witherbee. After some changes they formed a copartnership with George Sherman and his son, George R. Sherman, and for forty years the firm of Witherbee, Sherman & Co. has been among the best known among furnace and from men in the entire country. The success of the seen and of the Port Henry Iron Ore Company, of which he was a director and part owner, is largely due to the clear business and part owner, is largely due to the clear business mind and excellent judgment of Mr. Witherbee. In 1868, Mr. Witherbee removed to New-York, and for twenty-one years has lived in the house in which he died. He was well known in business and social circles, and for many years has been a member of the Union Lesgue Club. He was a member and trustee of the Brick Presbyterian Church. He leaves a widow and three children, the oldest the wife of the Rev. Lewis Francis, of Brooklyn; the second, the wife of Robert C. Black, of the firm of Black, Starr & Frost, and an only son, Walter C., of Port Henry, who is a member of the firm of Witherbee, Sherman & Co. The funeral will be beid at his home to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the body will be placed in the family vault at Port Henry.
